Opening Statement

Over the past four months, we have uncovered heaps of vile information about Tel0din that even many of the victims are devastated to learn. Some of these victims as children sadly didn't have to learn about it because they were the target, and their voices have been silenced. This is written to help give everyone a voice and justice now.

Many of these victims are anonymous for their safety and we ask that you please respect and understand this and ontop of this we have to sadly let you know that many more than those who were brave enough to speak up that have been affected. There are many more untold stories we can't say out of the respect since they didn't want to relive this, don't try seek them out we all beg you…
This will (for the most part) be in chronological order of when these events happened, going from oldest victim to newest so please keep the progression in mind as the age gaps only get larger and worse as you read.

I feel like we shouldn't have to say this because we hope people would rather consider their morals first. Unfortunately with as severe as this has gotten, you are enabling him to continue to hurt people if you continue to support him. It's not worth it to get caught up in this, "Separate art from the artist" does not work in this case if you're actively spending your money and giving him a platform. We cannot force you to hear us out, however we do highly encourage that you choose wisely on who you are supporting for your safety and for the safety of others. Please look out for each other. We please ask that you read with understanding and an open mind.

Also keep in mind that this document may be subject to updates and edits at times, due to us still actively uncovering more evidence from internet archives and regularly being approached by more victims of his.

And to Dan, from Cheruboness, as much as you want to twist why we've doing this, it's not out of spite, nor out of hatred, nor out of stalking, whatever the fuck excuse you want to make to try to shift the blame to your victims.
It's about pure passion for the people I have gotten to know and love over the past few months. The brave people that took the leap to call your abuse out and reached out to me after I shared my own fucked experience with you after you tortured me, gaslit me, and nearly led me to suicide with your friend Franci who also "happens" to have played a huge part in you abusing the other victims for a very long time as well, which is why this is so dear to me as i know how that feels now.
Didn't know near committing and passing out in the bathroom from drinking to numb the pain you two made me feel could be so easy to "move on" from. /sarc

You had that love and passion from me, and all of us once, and you lost it accordingly.
For many of us, some of that passion and care is still there for you, but we know what to prioritize. And I think that says a lot about you, because you can't begin to say the same.

It's important to point out that Tel0din has publicly been opposed to topics like:
MAPs, pedophilia, lolicon, shotacon, profic, proship etc... In other words he's been publicly firmly against both fictional AND real life scenarios featuring these topics... However in private he's over and over again acted on it and involved his victims in them for his own self admitted pleasure. This along with the people he keeps as company should be in the back of your mind while you read this as he HIMSELF view the things he's doing and has said as wrong.

NEW EDIT !

Despite having literally admitted to everything in this conversation that also mentions the grooming Ragnar endured and literally confirming everything about everyone mentioned below did infact happen; he has the gall to say this in his discord server yesterday (2025-05-03)

While also having said this to Linbae in DMs ALSO yesterday (2025-05-03)

FYI

Him mentioning the “amino drama” is him talking about closed species drama.

Meaning: he is comparing him committing potential crimes he admitted to himself and is now being held accountable for to closed species drama on the app amino.

While stuff you read below this this will show what happened in the past, this is Dan today and it paints a much darker picture if you have this in mind as it shows what he ended up becoming.

Here we will be getting into Tel0din’s child birth interest, highlighting some of the details of when he was in fetish servers as well as the art he drew. We are putting this at the start as this is very important and is one of the many things he exposed his survivors to for his own amusement.

Tel0din was a part of a few fetish discord servers, but namely, one called “Tummy Church”. (Proof of this pictured below)

This server and the other fetish discord servers he joined provide art and irl content of pregnancy fetishes. The others have been deleted due to this very issue. Including IRL child birth and child birth art that Tel0din heavily implied he references his art off of and uses to “pleasure” himself. He as of only less than two weeks ago, has left this server.

The censored child birth art is provided here, not all of it however, because he has deleted a lot of it. Even though it is censored we do NOT recommend you to open if you are uncomfortable or under 18.
https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1s2hzp-ohpZqbdd5FFD47ibA3IXdT8R0M

We also do not recommend joining this server and such will not provide the link in case of any legality involved, however if you choose to look there for the proof of the irl birth content to prove my validity, we cannot stop you but we will not provide it.

Disrespecting a minor's TOS

Not only did Tel0din blatantly disrespect a minor's terms of service and obtained a design from them illegally through three way trades with his friend Chiiblue (as well as one of Tel's other victims before they were informed of everything), but he proceeded to draw porn of the design that he received.

When confronted about this, this was his unwavering response;

This WOULD be valid had he obtained the design legally in the first place however he did NOT. He is talking as if this designer personally sold this character to him. The least he can do is stop drawing porn when a MINOR has expressed to one of the other victims who is their friend that they are uncomfortable with their work being fetishised like this as Tel0din went through hoops to obtain these designs illegally.

He Lied About Joshy.

I'll write this with the assumption that many people have heard about Tel0din's association with joshythefurret, and if not, here is a link from an old call out account that details this situation; https://www.instagram.com/p/CqDaEo-OVB9/?igsh=aHB2dWF0d25hOGNl

If you have heard about this situation, you have likely also heard that Tel0din "didn't know" Joshy was a pedophile and separated from him immediately after finding out, which I will IMMEDIATELY jump in and say here that is not true.

I have not one, but two screenshots that Feather provided. This is proof of them sending a link to Tel0din YEARS before he drew feral porn for Joshy, that he was informed of Joshy being a pedophile.

His hypocricy of sexualizing a minor character despite him "being against" such acts

Pictured below are screenshots of Dan talking about a body pillow that he owns, as well as screenshots of the body pillow itself, art he drew of it, etc. This is mainly brought up as Tel himself supposedly thinks sexualizing minors be it fictional or real life ones is wrong and as such; topics like "fiction VS reality" does not apply here and you yourself can make what you will of this information going forward.

https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1-Y8jC7Q2SqHo0qEK86rEdkMJdyEkEIq0

The body pillow is of a character named Mikaela from Owari no seraph/Seraph of the end, who is a teenager in the series.

The fact that this pillow is NSFW is an issue inherently, however the way he has talked about it and things he has done with this pillow are highly concerning as well. Simply owning a body pillow is not bad inherently however the context here is worth bringing up as a hypocrisy sidenote as he's admitted he's had sexual activities with it even in the year 2023.

Anon 1 Testimony:

Anon 1 is one of Tel's "original" victims. This issue has been continuous for over a decade, and this is incredibly relevant because Tel0din has not changed since then. They were 12 at the time he started to abuse them and they broke away around when they were 15 and he was 18.

Their statement can be read here.

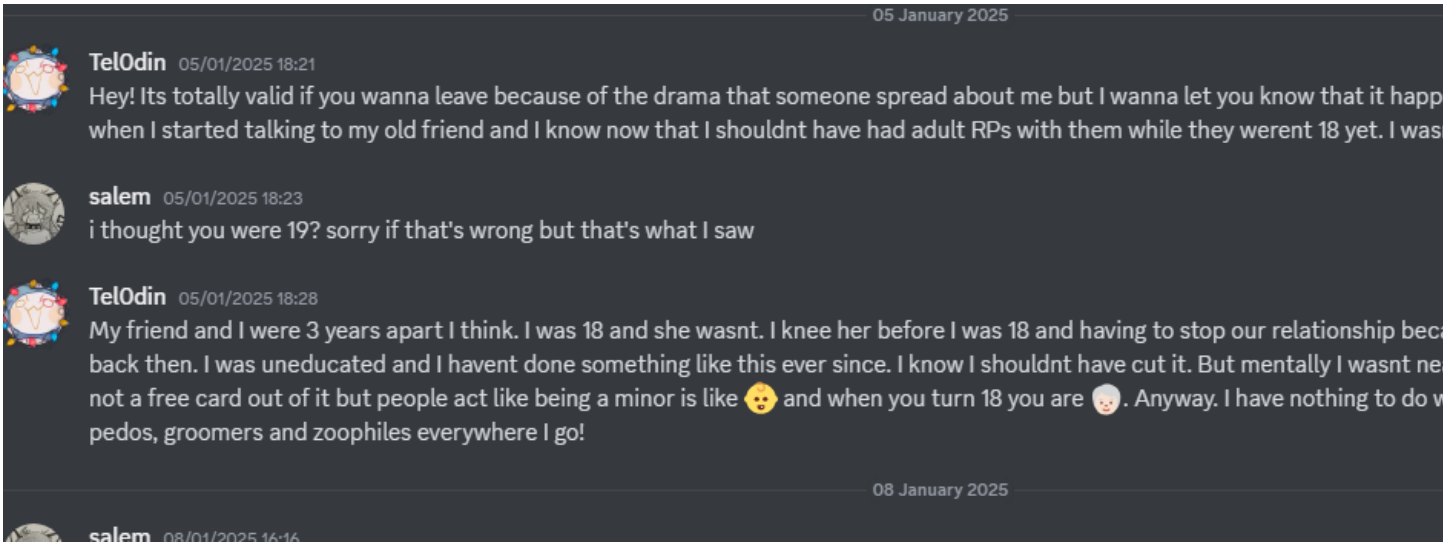
Witness 2’s statement: Impending

Anonymous Victim 2:
2015 - 2018

Anon 2 is a victim who Tel0din had entered a romantic and sexual relationship with in late 2015-2018, when they were 14 years old and he was 18. Their relationship had spanned on for approximately two + years up until they were 16 and he was 20. They had also remained in contact for a while after that, where they gave their character Cosmo to him who was a part of a ship they had together before they left the community.



When recently confronted about this, his excuse was that he was “only 18 and still had the mind of a child” despite him having sexual relationships with multiple freshly 18 year olds at the age of 24 and still allowing 18 year olds into the nsfw section of his server. According to his logic, they are not adults either and not yet mature enough. And considering he was hiding Anon 2’s age for this long, dated her for this long, and is deleting evidence, he was well aware of what he was doing.

The proof of Anon 2’s birth year pictured below from their art portfolio, cut out information is for their safety to keep them anonymous as requested. For reference, Daniel was born 08/10/1997 (For Americans, the format would be 10/08/1997).

I had a heart wrenching conversation with Anon 3 after they had approached me (Cheruboness/Yuri) on their own around the end of December 2024. They informed me of everything he has done to them and as deplorable as it is, they asked me to keep the private details very limited. I just ask that you trust me when I say, it is absolutely repulsive and very sexual; IE zoophilia, intense sexual roleplay, incest, he even was gearing and saving up to meet anon 2 in person. Proof for that is pictured below.

I will still cover information that is already public about their relationship, such as past call outs and even times I was involved, like how Tel0din sent me porn art he drew for them in 2017 when I was freshly a teenager myself.

So I'm leaving the amino and meeps in general. I've met a ton of great people and even have a few I can call friends, but I refuse to support Tel0din or be part of a community that's based on hate. If any of you want to contact me, I'm on the Toxacat amino under 'Tiamat' and my Instagram is @tiamat_the_great .
Message to Tel0din: I supported you and wanted to believe you were a good person. I wanted to believe all the shit you did was fake, but you are one of the worst people I've met. You act like a fucking 5 year old. You are 22 for fucks sake! You delete every comment that doesn't side with you, you drew cub porn, you DATED a fucking minor and drew porn for them. You are making artists terrified of sharing what they have created just because you felt entitled enough to make a rip off. You throw fits whenever stuff doesn't go your way. You made Garrett and meeps in general because you were pissy that you didn't win a bid. You are a fucking child. I don't care what you think of me after this. Go fuck yourself, you entitled piece of shit.

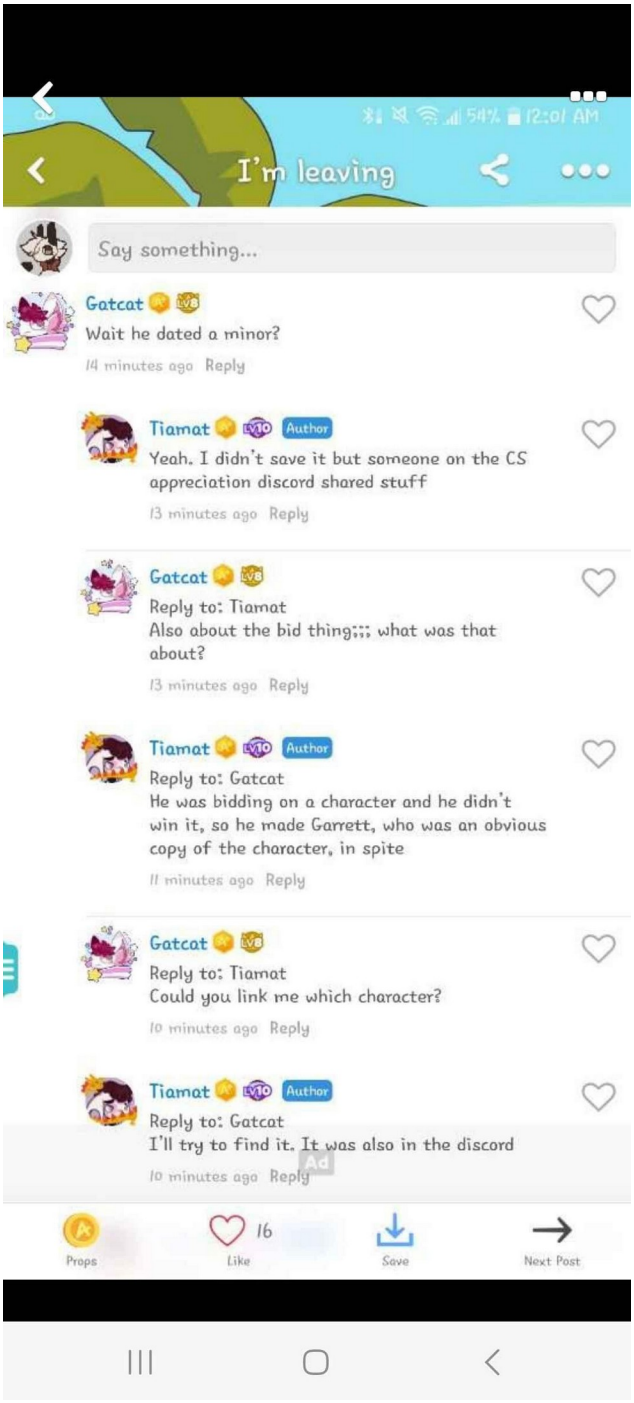
sed for dating a minor



I followed up with Tiamat about this and based on the timeline of when this post was made (in 2019) i knew it was about Anon 2 as their relationship with Tel0din was very public at that time. Tel0din was very successful at hiding their age and it was only recently uncovered thanks to Tiamat's help here.

https://www.deviantart.com/stash/2by5sib9g83

This stash link contains as much proof I could find that mentions Anon 3. Please look through carefully as there is a twin incest nsfw preview in this link. A lot of the nsfw art he drew for anon 3, he posted on his NSFW patreon. He has deleted those images as of December 30th, 2024. Thankfully we have video archives of his patreon (censored) before the deletion as well as a few of the deleted images.

Proof of the deletion is linked below, as well as proof of him sending Yuri the nsfw art he drew for Anon 2 when he was only 13;

VIDEO 1: https://youtu.be/ExfhblV5HQE
VIDEO 2: https://youtu.be/IqJ1GHLDK-M

And finally, this is his patreon account after the deletion. Since the instagram post he has deleted 5 more additional posts (and then uploaded more to make it appear like he didn't delete them), making that 56 pieces of porn evidence in total that has been scrubbed less than three months ago.
https://www.patreon.com/Tel0din

Update: since this was written he deleted about 14 more posts, those of which were child birth art.

Anonymous 3:

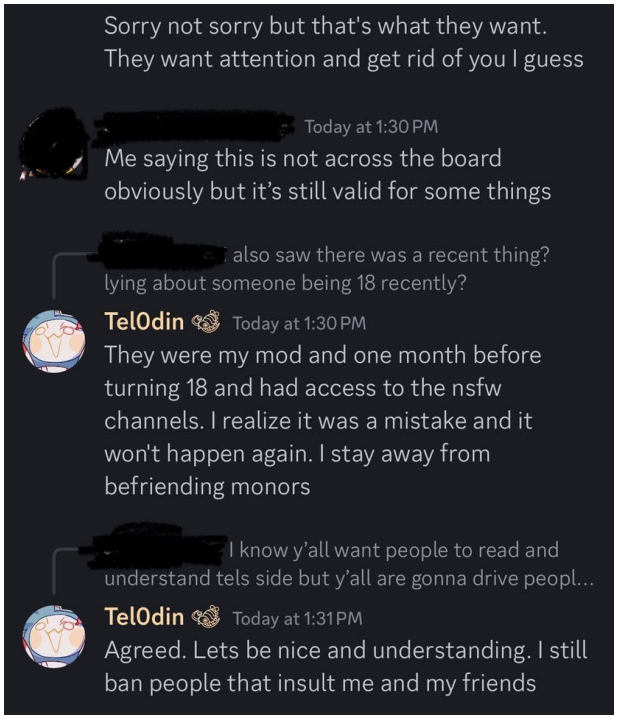
(This section will be written by Yuri/cheruboness, as he is a major witness to this situation and was attempting to protect this person)

Anon 3 was a minor at the time of this situation in 2022 (17), their birthday being mid-late june, and a person who was previously an admin in Tel0din's server. Prior to that they and Tel0din had been friends, I'm not exactly sure how long but I know over at least a year.

Tel0din had given Anon 3 nsfw channel access ever since the discord server was opened (January 2022), them having been 17 at the time.

Multiple people including myself started to become skeptical about Anon 3's age, as it had been admittedly very confusing. And it was confusing for a good reason, as Tel0din had groomed this person into helping him lie about their age age and falsely stating they were over 18. Even lying and saying they had shown him their ID.

Tel0din did recently admit to this, his excuse for it, even worse. He stated they were a month away from being 18 at the time (which is true, but also is not at all a valid excuse) however they have had nsfw access in the server for going on 5 months before they turned 18, so he is trying to lie and downplay the situation here.



Here is the proof of them being confronted prior to them turning 18 with questions about their age + where Tel0din and them were lying about it. The last screenshot even shows that two months prior to them lying about this, Tel0din knew they were a child; based on the context we have here we believe Dan lied about their age to cover up for the fact that he accidentally outed them as a minor despite them having nsfw channel access.

I never even considered going to any events in high school
Not even a thought Too many people
except for graduation bc I like seeing my dad happy
Not a face he wears too often

Here is where i confronted them recently and they admitted to being underaged;

ok I'm here sorry for the very delayed response shit is hard and busy rn q-q
I'm a bit scared to ask you this bc I genuinely care for you and value you a lot as a friend, and I don't want it to backfire but, in the past few weeks I have been given a lot of concerning info about tel and his behavior towards children. and it reminded me very heavily of about three years ago, when a few server members of his and I were showing concern about your age. I remember you guys had also been shipping your characters together, despite tel saying he was "uncomfortable with shipping characters with minors" around that timeframe.

and this is not to bring you into drama or anything nor am I upset with you at all, this is out of sheer concern because I have just recently come to notice you made your age public on your toyhouse now. and because everything I've learned about tel in the past few weeks has been utterly revolting, and I hope he did not do the same to you. I remember you had said back then that you were an adult, and lied to me, when you were still 17. you had access to the nsfw channels and everything.

I was wondering, why did you and tel do this? was it something he made you say? something you agreed on? regardless, this is absolutely unacceptable of him and his behavior towards minors now and before has always been inexcusable and no matter what occured, none of that is your fault or wrongdoing.

If you need more context, I have very disgusting evidence of him dating, making porn for, and grooming a minor for about two years. drawing incest art of their characters, etc. and lately I've had victims of his reaching out to me about him grooming and sending them nsfw art he drew as well.

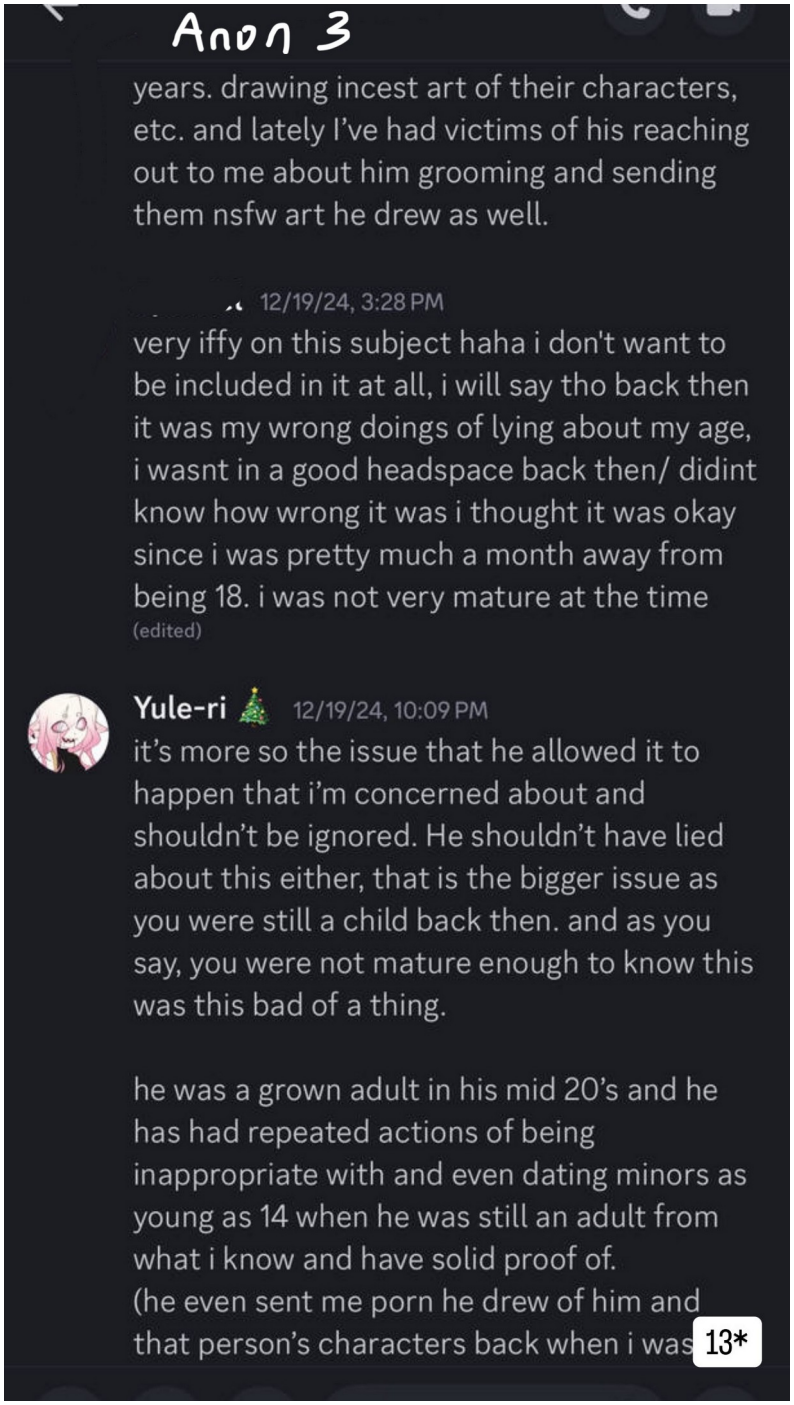
very iffy on this subject haha i don't want to be included in it at all, i will say tho back then it was my wrong doings of lying about my age



Not only did they have nsfw access and Tel0din was interacting sexually with them there (which i've lost the evidence to as he has recently deleted the old nsfw chat and replaced it to cover his tracks;) he was romantically shipping characters with them. which is concerning itself as he at 24 years old should not have romantic ships with someone who is 16-17, but even more so as also around this time Tel0din had explicitly said he does not ship his characters with minors. Implying he knows it is weird for him to do at his age, yet he still did it while simultaneously saying he doesn't do it.

Tel0din's character named Roger (https://refsheet.net/Tel0din/Roger) who is shipped with Anon 3's character, was very often drawn in nsfw art by Tel0din around this time where they started shipping these characters in late 2021. This itself isn't a problem however it is hard not to suspect there wasn't more sexual ship conversations going on with the context we have and the timestamps "coincidentally" matching up as well as him letting them into pornographic spaces .

Cheruboness Testimony:

First brief interaction(s) ~ 2017,

Main interaction: 2022 - 2024

Cherruboness is a victim of Tel0din's who is asexual and was sexually abused and fetishized. This started while he was still in highschool, months before even graduating. He was 18-21 and Tel0din was 24-27, however as mentioned in other sections, Tel has also sent him a porn image in 2017 when Yuri was 13. This document has been posted previously, however it has been MAJORLY updated to include more uncovered information and better formatting as the original document was written in the heat of the moment after he was mentally tortured and nearly driven to suicide by Tel and his friend Sam.Bacher, also known as Franci Clancy/Finou, who we recently uncovered has also targeted Tel0din's other victims years back. The both of them still plotting together with him to do this to his victims as of only months ago highlights how neither of them changed.

Scrimblie Testimony

Scrimblie is a victim of Tel0din's who is also asexual and has been subjected to unsolicited porn art of their and Tel's fursonas together, was pressured into a relationship with him, and much more.

Closing statement:
From Lokatts

I've been involved with these people for a few months now and I suppose you could say I have some choice words… While seeing his own words in real time from talking to him 1 on 1 as well as the survivors stories from years ago being retold to me directly the picture I've gotten of him and his character does not make me happy and it's been incredibly hard to bear some days.
I tried my best to do timely updates on big happenings this toyhou.se forum post while we were working on this all, if you haven't already seen that I would recommend giving that a read too if you feel you need it.
https://toyhou.se/~forums/5867.service-reviews/599483.beware-tel0din

Everyone we refound after all these years have despite being scared quickly grown braver and some have even put aside their differences and even make amends with one another to talk about what they went through. I think regardless of them having a name attached or not to this document they've been incredible and kind to one another when times have been rough. It breaks my heart to have gotten to know these people and notice a pattern and similarities they all share and it makes it all seem so much more calculated on his end. They are all bouncy and lovely people and we have shared many of both laughs and tears together, both in VC and through text.

I don't want you to remember any of them as "Tel0din's victims", I want you all to see them as people, none of them deserved this and I hope I get to see them grow further from here on.

I've said it at the start and I've said it again: I'm not a survivor of him myself but I've done the bare minimum I can of using some of my own experiences and abilities to support them the best I can, neither I or they can change your stance if you're unwilling to listen so you alone are going to have to make up your own mind on what you believe is the correct course of actions as sadly it does seem like an impossibility both to get justice legally and for him to actually get help.
We have talked to Dan on our own and he's always spun this lie that he's sorry, admitting that we are RIGHT about everything and that he will get help just to get us to stop bothering him.
I just don't think he ever will given how he behaves the moment he thinks nobody is watching and it's horrific to see.

He doesn't think he needs help and he wants to run away from what he's done even when he personally told me he'd not run away from this discussion he purposely waited for me to leave so I couldn't stop him… I was fair and only stated his own principles back to him and he did not like that and to this day I still maintain if he miracilously changes his mind about discussing things my DMs are open. Unfortunately for him I will not take his side and I think he has to accept that if he truly believes and wants to change for the better and truly confront the things he's done with an actual therapist and NOT his discord server full of adoring and oblivious fans… His behaviors from 10 years ago are only relevant today as they are tactics he STILL uses to his advantage. Had he stopped years ago none of us would be here today writing this and unfortunately it's his own ego that led to this, you only have yourself to blame.

Whether or not you personally agree or disagree on his fetishes is irrelevant and not even worth discussing in my opinion given by his own words he views what he is doing is disgusting and wrong. Almost everything he panders publicly he's against he is into in private and even argued about me not using the correct fetish term to describe his actions. His likes and dislikes have not really changed since he was a teen and while it's normal for people and especially teens to explore and experiment when they get to that age where you start experiencing these things it's important to note that; preferences tend to develop and expand with age and they've only gotten more and more intense. This itself is not a huge problem normally! The problem is Dan displays a worrying degree of porn addiction that doesn't seem to have a limit when it's gone as far as potentially referencing real life infants exiting a real life human being for his porn and the age gap between him and the people he targets and manipulates to agree with him or bend to his will. Someone who has just turned 18 years old (or hell EVEN YOUNGER) are not by any means mentally prepared for conversations about these intense paraphilias one week after their birthday. Regardless on where you personally stand on topics like "art doesn't affect reality" the fact of the matter is he actively involves real life teens into his fantasies as soon as it's "legal" to do so… This is not about kinkshaming and I couldn't give less of a fuck if he had kept this type of stuff between consensual adults but I draw the line with how flippantly he's included people in his stuff without care or even asking for their ages before doing so and I'm horrified that there's a possibility he indeed used real life imagery from these servers as inspiration. I can not stress it enough that given the cheer volume of it I think it needs to be seriously put into question and ESPECIALLY so when: Dan himself "supposedly" thinks, agrees AND has talked about how art and interests like this and to this degree are deplorable and makes you a predator.

It really is nothing more than trying to cover his tracks to look better in public in my opinion, much like dismissing anyone who calls him out on these things as "stalkers".
He's not sorry, he's sorry he was caught.
If he was truly sorry and thought he needed help like he claims he does then he would've gotten it a long time ago. Don't buy it.

You can skirt around the law all you want but your behavior has proven to me what kind of person you really are, and now it's up to everyone else to make their own decision of your character just like you said you wanted them to. The evidence isn't hidden or wiped this time so let's all see what happens now when the picture is clearer. I have a full uneditable export of our DM log including all files that we both shared archived on my device incase you purge it like you have on telegram with so many of your survivors and while it's been censored for this document; I am NOT afraid to publish it if he bad mouths and publicly talk about his survivors by name and/or claims I'm defaming him. I also gave him full permission to show it to his friends if he so wished to as I have nothing to hide, I am only not making it public as it includes direct names of survivors.

Below here is the link to the FULL conversation I had with him.
My thanks to Anon 1 for volunteering to censor everything! ❤

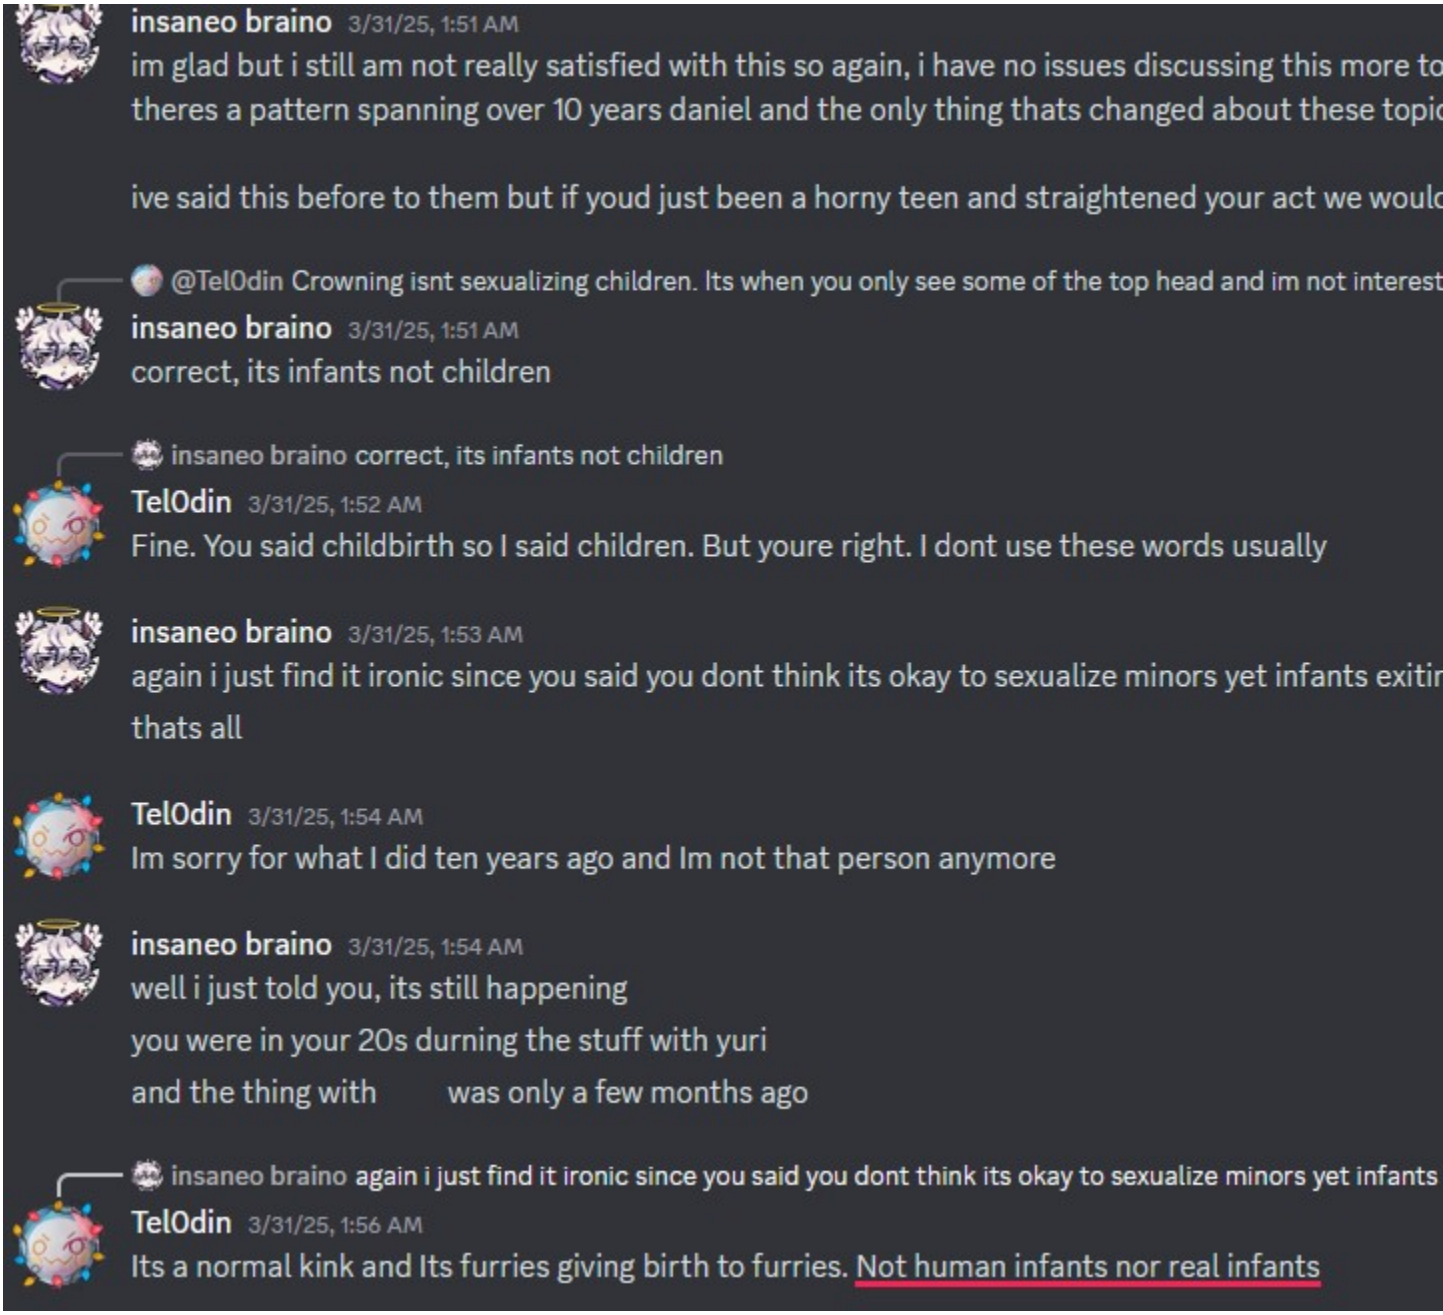
Crowning isnt sexualizing children. Its when you only see some of the top head and im not interest



Our entire log looks REALLY BAD on you, but this one sure is a cherry on top in hindsight isn't it?

Guess at this point it's okay now to draw straight up CSEM since it's not real according to this logic despite him having been openly against it. I sincerely just think he's trying to find loopholes to indulge in his predatory fetishes. How is furry infant porn art any different than human infant porn art if you have always dishonestly considered furry CSEM to be predatory even after you originally got called out for drawing baby feral pokemon porn? I don’t think he ever expected THIS to come out, but cat’s out of the bag now.

Get help, don’t just say you will to get people off your back; ACTUALLY FUCKING GET HELP before you go even further than you already have gone. Your addictions will be your fucking downfall and you only have yourself and your ego to blame.
